Salisbury Museum has been an important part of the cultural life of the City for 150 years. Major exhibitions, new objects and gallery refurbishments would not have been possible without the support of visitors, volunteers, members and donors.

The museum is now making ambitious plans for the future including new galleries on the Archaeology of Wessex, which will create a modern environment for the nationally important collections from Stonehenge and Old Sarum.

DONATE

Support our 150th Anniversary Fund. You can also 'adopt an object' for the NEW Archaeology of Wessex gallery.

VOLUNTEER

Become part of the team and sign up to be a guide or steward. We also need volunteers to catalogue our collections, help with exhibitions and support our family events.

LEGACIES

Remember the museum in your will. Legacies reduce any tax burden on your estate, and they also make a vital contribution to our work.

MEMBERSHIP

Join us and in return you will receive:

-  Free admission to the museum and its exhibitions
-  Three newsletters per year
-  Discounted entry to museum lectures and events
-  Invitations to private views and other exclusive events

TEN REASONS TO SUPPORT US

-  We have one of the best archaeology collections in the country outside a national museum.
-  Our significant art collection includes works by Turner, Constable, Augustus John and Rex Whistler.
-  We have major plans to redevelop the museum over the next five to ten years.
-  In 2011 there will be a ground breaking exhibition on Constable and Salisbury.
-  The museum is run by a small number of paid staff and a team of over 90 volunteers.
-  We are the only museum that collects objects relating to Salisbury's past, which we are preserving for current and future generations.
-  Our education programme reaches out to over 3,000 school children each year.
-  We have an impressive public programme, including eight exhibitions, thirty lectures and twenty family events each year.
-  Visitors, from five to ninety-five years of age, can enjoy a visit to the museum.
-  We are an independent museum and a charity that has been a major part of Salisbury for 150 years.
